Terms & Conditions

Effective date: November 2nd, 2026

These Website Terms & Conditions (also referred to as "Terms of Use") govern access to and use of Alenac's public websites and online content. They do not govern any separately contracted fabrication or installation work.

1. Website operator and scope

These Terms govern access to alenac.com, alenacmetals.com, and landing pages within those websites (collectively, the "Website"), operated by Alenac Metals Corp., doing business as Alenac & Associates ("Alenac," "we," "us," or "our"). By accessing or using the Website, you acknowledge that your use is subject to these Terms. If you do not agree, please discontinue use of the Website.

The Website provides general information about Alenac's metal fabrication, installation, and related services and permits visitors to contact Alenac or request information. The Website does not sell products or process payments online.

2. Informational content; no professional advice

Descriptions, specifications, illustrations, dimensions, photographs, renderings, project examples, performance statements, and other Website content are provided for general informational and illustrative purposes. Actual materials, dimensions, finishes, availability, project conditions, designs, regulatory requirements, and results may vary.

Website information does not constitute engineering, architectural, legal, safety, code-compliance, or other project-specific professional advice. Visitors should obtain an appropriate project-specific evaluation and the necessary professional approvals before relying on any design or specification for construction or installation. Alenac may revise or remove Website content without notice.

3. Inquiries, requests for quotes, and commercial agreements

Submitting a contact form, chat message, uploaded file, or request for a quote does not create a customer relationship, purchase order, binding offer, reservation of materials, or contract. An acknowledgment, general estimate, preliminary response, or discussion through the Website is not a binding commitment to provide services, pricing, production schedules, installation dates, or deliverables.

Any actual sale, fabrication, installation, delivery, warranty, payment, change order, or other project obligation will be governed by the applicable written proposal and/or separately executed commercial agreement. If a separate signed agreement conflicts with these Terms on a matter covered by that agreement, the signed agreement controls for that matter.

4. Ownership and permitted use of Website materials

Unless stated otherwise, the Website and its original text, photographs, graphics, designs, renders, logos, trade names, drawings, layouts, and other materials are owned by Alenac or used with permission and are protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

You may view and download limited Website content solely for your own legitimate, internal evaluation of Alenac's services, provided you do not remove proprietary notices. No right to reproduce, republish, distribute, sell, modify, train commercial systems on, or commercially exploit Website materials is granted without Alenac's prior written permission, except as allowed by law. No license to Alenac's trademarks or other intellectual property is implied.

5. Information and project materials you submit

You are responsible for ensuring that information, statements, photographs, plans, drawings, and other material you submit are accurate to the best of your knowledge and that you have the rights or permissions needed to provide them. Do not submit unlawful material, malicious code, or information you are not authorized to share.

You retain any ownership rights you have in materials you submit. By submitting them, you grant Alenac a limited, non-exclusive right to receive, store, reproduce internally, and review them as reasonably necessary to evaluate your inquiry, prepare a possible quotation, communicate with you, maintain related records, and operate the Website. This does not transfer ownership of your plans or creative work to Alenac.

If your project materials require special contractual confidentiality protections, contact Alenac to discuss an appropriate separate written agreement before uploading them. We handle personal information as described in our Privacy Policy; any additional confidentiality commitments must be stated in a separate agreement.

6. Acceptable use and security

You agree not to misuse the Website, attempt unauthorized access to systems or data, circumvent security controls, introduce harmful software, interfere with operation, impersonate another person, submit fraudulent requests, scrape content in a manner that violates applicable law or our rights, or use the Website for any unlawful purpose. Alenac may restrict access or take appropriate action in response to suspected misuse, subject to applicable law.

7. Third-party services and links

The Website may integrate third-party technologies, such as contact forms, analytics, or chat functions, and may contain links to third-party websites or services. Those third parties may apply their own terms and privacy practices. Alenac does not control independent third-party sites and is not responsible for their content, availability, or practices except to the extent required by applicable law.

8. Privacy

Personal information submitted through the Website or generated by its use is handled in accordance with our Website Privacy Policy, as updated from time to time. Please review that Policy for information about forms, website analytics, chatbot communications, document uploads, service providers, and your privacy choices.

9. No warranties relating to the Website

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE WEBSITE AND ITS GENERAL CONTENT ARE PROVIDED ON AN “AS IS” AND “AS AVAILABLE” BASIS. ALENAC DISCLAIMS IMPLIED WARRANTIES RELATING TO WEBSITE ACCESS, FUNCTIONALITY, ACCURACY, COMPLETENESS, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE TO THE EXTENT SUCH DISCLAIMERS ARE PERMITTED BY LAW.

We do not warrant uninterrupted or error-free Website access, or that the Website is free of all security vulnerabilities. Nothing in this section limits express warranties or commitments expressly agreed to by Alenac in a separate written customer contract.

10. Limitation of liability

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ALENAC AND ITS OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND REPRESENTATIVES WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR FOR LOSS OF PROFITS, BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY, OR DATA, ARISING SOLELY FROM ACCESS TO, USE OF, OR INABILITY TO USE THE WEBSITE OR RELIANCE ON ITS GENERAL INFORMATION, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ALENAC’S AGGREGATE LIABILITY FOR CLAIMS ARISING SOLELY FROM USE OF THE WEBSITE (AND NOT FROM A SEPARATE SIGNED COMMERCIAL AGREEMENT) WILL NOT EXCEED US $100. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS DO NOT APPLY WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW OR TO LIABILITY THAT CANNOT LAWFULLY BE EXCLUDED OR LIMITED. These Terms do not alter responsibilities under any separately executed customer agreement.

11. Changes and availability

Alenac may modify, suspend, or discontinue the Website or any feature at any time and may update these Terms periodically. The updated version will be posted with a new effective date. Continued use after an update takes effect may constitute acceptance to the extent permitted by law; where affirmative agreement is legally required, we will seek it as appropriate.

12. Governing law and disputes

Except to the extent another law mandatorily applies, these Terms and disputes arising solely from use of the Website will be governed by the laws of the State of Florida, United States, without regard to its conflict-of-laws principles.

Subject to applicable law, proceedings concerning such disputes shall be brought in courts of competent jurisdiction located in Palm Beach County, Florida. This provision does not modify any separate written agreement between Alenac and a customer.

13. Severability and entire terms

If a provision of these Terms is held unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue in effect to the extent permitted by law. A failure to enforce any provision is not a waiver. These Terms, together with the referenced Privacy Policy, address use of the Website only and do not replace any project-specific quotation, purchase order, nondisclosure agreement, or separately signed commercial contract.
